

Agenda:

- Red line
- Project name brainstorm
- Countries & route
- Budget
- Planning

First we talked about our general feeling about this adventure and what was on our minds. We want to bundle all our ideas and meeting notes, so at the end it is possible to look back to the start and reflect. Also we want to be able to inform others how we prepared for our future trip.

Topics for our Red Line:

- Empowering women
- Developmental work
- WWOOFing
- Environment
- Sustainability
- Cultural exchange (in diverse ways: giving presentations at schools, talking about our lifestyle, embracing the local lifestyle, sporting activities and sponsoring (organising football events and having a sponsor that sponsors shoes for the kids)
- Microfinance & investing in projects

An other idea for the website could be:

- Max's Corner (sponsor donation of 1 ct per kilometer)
- Possibility for other people to donate in the same way
- We decide along the way when and to who the money goes (local microfinance or aid)
- Making a difference on a local scale on the basis of trust and responsibility

For the website:

- We want to engage in the verb: 'verwonderen'
- Having an eye for detail
- Traveler without awareness is like a photographer without a camera
- Authenticity!

Building knowledge:

- as in learning russian
- which substantive issues can be interesting
- insurance (ISIS and others)
- Vaccinations and planning of the vaccinations

Other side notes:

- Waterwarmer in Brazil
- Women of the world, blog with foto's and descriptions of characteristic women.
- <http://www.yogaholidaysgreece.com/> Yoga in greece, connection of Ham.

Route:

Netherlands - Germany - Austria - Italy - Croatia - Montenegro - Albania - Greece - Turkey -
Iran - Turkmenistan - Oezbekistan - Tajikistan - Kyrgyzstan - Kazakhstan - Russia - Mongolia -
China - Myanmar - India - Bangladesh - India - Nepal.